Analysis

Current Law: Maryland Rule 15-901 sets forth procedures for a change of name other than in connection with an adoption or divorce. An action for a change of name must be brought in the county where the person who wants the name change resides. Upon the filing of a petition for a change of name, the court clerk must issue a notice that includes the caption of the action, the substance of the petition and the relief sought, and the latest date by which an objection to the petition may be filed. Unless the court on motion of the petitioner orders otherwise, the notice must be published one time in a newspaper of general circulation, as specified.

After the time for filing objections and responses has expired, the court may either hold a hearing or rule on the petition without a hearing and must enter an appropriate order. A petition may not be denied without a hearing if one was requested by the petitioner.
