A BILL ENTITLED

AN ACT concerning

Declaration of Rights – Religious Freedom, Religious Tests, and Oaths and Affirmations

FOR the purpose of altering and removing references to God from certain provisions relating to religious freedom, religious tests, and oaths and affirmations.

BY proposing an amendment to the Maryland Constitution

Declaration of Rights

Article 36, 37, and 39

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, (Three–fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses concurring), That it be proposed that the Maryland Constitution read as follows:

Declaration of Rights

Article 36.

[That as it is the duty of every man to worship God in such manner as he thinks most acceptable to Him, all] ALL persons are equally entitled to protection in their religious liberty; wherefore, no person ought by any law to be molested in [his] person or estate, on account of [his] THE religious persuasion[,] or profession OF THE PERSON, or for [his] THE religious practice OF THE PERSON, unless, under the color of religion, [he] THE PERSON shall disturb the good order, peace or safety of the State, or [shall infringe the laws of morality, or] injure others in their natural, civil or religious rights; nor ought any person to be compelled to frequent, or maintain, or contribute, unless on contract, to maintain, any place of worship, or any ministry; nor shall any person, otherwise competent, be deemed incompetent as a witness, or juror, on account of [his] THE religious belief[,] provided, he believes in the existence of God, and that under His dispensation such person will be held morally accountable for his acts, and be rewarded or punished therefor either in this world or in the world to come] of the person.

[Nothing shall prohibit or require the making reference to belief in, reliance upon, or invoking the aid of God or a Supreme Being in any governmental or public document, proceeding, activity, ceremony, school, institution, or place.

Nothing in this article shall constitute an establishment of religion.]

Article 37.

That no religious test ought ever to be required as a qualification for any office of profit or trust in this State[, other than a declaration of belief in the existence of God]; nor shall the Legislature prescribe any other oath of office than the oath prescribed by this Constitution.

Article 39.

That the manner of administering an oath or affirmation to any person, ought to be such as those of the religious persuasion, profession, or denomination, of which [he] the person is a member[, generally esteem the most effectual confirmation by the attestation of the Divine Being].

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the General Assembly determines that the amendment to the Maryland Constitution proposed by Section 1 of this Act affects multiple jurisdictions and that the provisions of Article XIV, § 1 of the Maryland Constitution concerning local approval of constitutional amendments do not apply.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the amendment to the Maryland Constitution proposed by Section 1 of this Act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State at the next general election to be held in November 2022 for adoption or rejection pursuant to Article XIV of the Maryland Constitution. At that general election, the vote on the proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and on each ballot there shall be printed the words “For the Constitutional Amendment” and “Against the Constitutional Amendment”, as now provided by law. Immediately after the election, all returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against the proposed amendment, as directed by Article XIV of the Maryland Constitution, and further proceedings had in accordance with Article XIV.
