Strike-out indicates matter stricken from the bill by amendment or deleted from the law by amendment.
(a) (1) A personal representative or special administrator is entitled to reasonable compensation for services.

(2) If a will provides a stated compensation for the personal representative, additional compensation shall be allowed if the provision is insufficient in the judgment of the court.

(3) The personal representative or special administrator may renounce at any time all or a part of the right to compensation.

7–604.

(a) [Payment of] THE PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE MAY PAY commissions to personal representatives under § 7–601 of this subtitle, and attorney’s fees under § 7–602 of this subtitle [may be made] without court approval if:

(1) (i) Each creditor, who has filed a claim that is still open, and all interested persons consent in writing to the payment;

(ii) The combined sum of the payments of commissions and attorney’s fees does not exceed the amounts provided in § 7–601 of this subtitle; [and]

(iii) The signed written consent form states the amounts of the payments and is filed with the register of wills; [or] AND

(IV) UNLESS THE CONSENT FORM IS FILED SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH THE FINAL ADMINISTRATION ACCOUNT OR FINAL REPORT UNDER A MODIFIED ADMINISTRATION, EACH PAYMENT CONSENTED TO IS FOR SERVICES RENDERED BY THE ATTORNEY OR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE PRIOR TO THE DATE OF THE CONSENT; OR

(2) (i) The fee is paid to an attorney representing the estate in litigation under a contingency fee agreement signed by the decedent or the current personal representative of the decedent’s estate;

(ii) The fee does not exceed the terms of the contingency fee agreement;

(iii) A copy of the contingency fee agreement is on file with the register of wills; and

(iv) The attorney files a statement with each account stating that the scope of the representation by the attorney does not extend to the administration of the estate.
(b) When rendering accounts, the personal representative shall designate any payment made under this section as an expense.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 2022.
