Analysis

Bill Summary: The commission must:

- study evidence-based policies and practices for maximizing safety for youth athletes based on national research;
- seek input from nationally recognized youth sports oversight organizations;
- study ways to reduce injury risk levels to youth athletes at different ages; and

- make recommendations for implementation of evidence-based best practices for minimizing injury risks for youth athletes.

Current Law: Youth sports programs are required to make available information on concussions, head injuries, and sudden cardiac arrest developed by MSDE to coaches, youth athletes, and the parents or guardians of youth athletes. A coach of a youth sports program is required to review the information.

A youth athlete who is suspected of sustaining a concussion or other head injury in a practice or game must be removed from play at that time and may not return to play until the youth athlete has obtained written clearance from a licensed health care provider trained in the evaluation and management of concussions.

Youth sports programs seeking to use school facilities must verify in writing that they have distributed concussion information to parents or guardians and have received verifiable acknowledgment of receipt. Each youth sports program must annually affirm to the local school system its compliance with concussion information procedures.
