Local Effect: The bill does not directly affect local finances or operations.

Small Business Effect: Minimal.

Analysis

Current Law: “Agritourism” is defined in § 4-212 of the Land Use Article as an activity conducted on a farm that is offered to a member of the general public or to invited guests for the purpose of education, recreation, or active involvement in the farm operation. “Agritourism” includes farm tours, hayrides, corn mazes, seasonal petting farms, farm museums, guest farms, pumpkin patches, “pick your own” or “cut your own” produce, classes related to agricultural products or skills, and picnic and party facilities offered in conjunction with any agritourism activity.

A local jurisdiction (with the exception of Baltimore City) is authorized, under § 4-212, to adopt the definition of agritourism by local ordinance, resolution, law, or rule.
