9 a result of a malicious act by any person; and

24 of a comprehensive, integrated set of laws that protect victims of elder abuse and 25 exploitation; and

26 WHEREAS, The General Assembly wishes to affirm its commitment to enabling the 27 courts to issue fair, just, and appropriate judgments against abusers by being educated 28 about elder abuse and being able to recognize inherent elder abuse in cases which do not 29 appear to be elder abuse crimes but rather other crimes committed against older adults; 30 and

31 WHEREAS, Maryland’s laws on elder abuse need to be reviewed, updated, and
