Calvert County - County Treasurer - Removal From Office

This emergency bill authorizes the Calvert County Commissioners to remove the Calvert County Treasurer from office if (1) the treasurer is not present in the treasurer's office for the transaction of business in accordance with the Public Local Laws of Calvert County for at least eight months during a calendar year and (2) the treasurer fails to provide the county commissioners with a certificate of sale within one week after the county tax sale in accordance with the Tax – Property Article for each property offered for sale at the tax sale for which there was no private purchaser.

The bill specifies that actions taken or not taken by the treasurer within one year before the effective date of the bill may provide a basis for the county commissioners to remove the treasurer from office after the effective date of the bill.
