Indigenous Peoples' Day - Rule of Interpretation and Replacement of Columbus Day

This bill replaces Columbus Day with Indigenous Peoples' Day. Indigenous Peoples' Day must be observed on October 12, or the day designated by the U.S. Congress for the observance of Columbus Day. The bill also makes conforming changes.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None. The bill does not substantively change State activities or operations.

Local Effect: Local school systems can devote a part of the school day to appropriate exercises that relate to Indigenous Peoples' Day using existing resources. Revenues are not affected.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: State public schools must devote a part of at least one day to appropriate exercises for each of the following: Washington's Birthday; Lincoln's Birthday; Veterans' Day; Columbus Day; Arbor Day; Black History Month, as specified; and any other day of national significance. The State recognizes 11 bank holidays, 17 legal holidays, and 13 State employee holidays, as identified in Exhibit 1. This includes Columbus Day.

Chapter 486 of 2008 designated the Friday after Thanksgiving as American Indian Heritage Day and added it to the list of State legal and employee holidays. Juneteenth National Independence Day was designated a federal holiday in June 2021; it is also a State legal and employee holiday.
