

Article - Public Safety

§5-112.

- (a) A dealer's license is not transferable.
- (b) Before moving a place of business, a licensee shall inform the Secretary and surrender the dealer's license.
- (c) If a cause to revoke the dealer's license does not exist, the Secretary shall issue a new dealer's license without charge covering the new place of business for the rest of the term of the surrendered dealer's license.