Sheriff of Frederick County - Salary - Workgroup

This bill establishes the Workgroup to Study the Salary of the Sheriff of Frederick County. The workgroup must (1) study the salaries of the sheriff in each county in the State (and any other law enforcement position with similar responsibilities and preparation requirements as a sheriff) and (2) make recommendations regarding the salary of the Sheriff of Frederick County. The workgroup members must elect a chair; the legislative liaison of the County Executive of Frederick County – in consultation with the staff of the members of the workgroup – must provide staff. Members may not receive compensation but are entitled to reimbursement for expenses under the standard State travel regulations. By December 15, 2025, the workgroup must report its findings and recommendations to the Frederick County Delegation to the General Assembly. The bill takes effect June 1, 2024, and terminates December 31, 2025.
