28. Comments

Elmwood Elementary School provides for the comprehensive development of students including participation in the arts, athletics, and community programs. Elmwood Elementary School also provides support for various school system and community organizations. All Baltimore County families can use these playground facilities. These new playgrounds will provide our students with safe, accessible, and inclusive spaces for physical activity, social interaction, and imaginative play. This project aligns with our commitment to providing a well-rounded education that supports the development of the whole child.
