28. Comments

Parkville Middle School provides for the comprehensive development of students including participation in the arts, athletics, and community programs. Parkville Middle School also provides support for various school system and community organizations. This gym partition will allow two gym classes to use the gym at the same time and will provide our students with safe, accessible, and inclusive spaces for physical activity, social interaction, and imaginative play. This project aligns with our commitment to providing a well-rounded education that supports the development of the whole child.
