Analysis

Current Law: Maryland's 23 counties, Baltimore City, and the City of Annapolis all have boards of license commissioners who issue and enforce retail alcoholic beverages licenses in their jurisdictions. Within each jurisdiction, the most common types of retail licenses are Class A, Class B, Class C, and Class D licenses. Each license authorizes the sale of alcoholic beverages in a different manner. Class C licenses authorize the sale of alcohol to members and guests at a club, for on-site consumption only.

Class C license holders in Anne Arundel County may sell beer, wine, and liquor Monday through Saturday from 6 a.m. to 2 a.m. the following day. They may not sell beer, wine, or liquor after 2 a.m. on Sundays without a Sunday license. The board may issue a Sunday license to a Class C license holder, authorizing the sale of beer, wine, and liquor on Sunday according to the terms of that license.

Class C (veterans' organization) licenses can be issued by the board only to a local unit of a nationwide nonprofit organization or club that (1) is composed only of veterans of the U. S. Armed Forces; (2) has a charter from a national veterans' organization; (3) has a membership of at least 100 individuals and dues of at least $5 per year per individual; and (4) operates for its members and meets in a clubhouse principally used by its members. The annual license fee for a Class C (veterans' organization) license is $400.

Class C (fraternal/sororal) organization licenses can be issued by the board for use by a local unit of a lodge, political organization, or chapter of a nonprofit and nationwide fraternal or service organization that (1) is composed only of inducted members; (2) was operating in the county before the license application was made; (3) has a membership of at least 100 individuals and dues of at least $5 per year per individual; and (4) owns and operates a home or clubhouse that is principally for the use of its members and guests accompanied by members. The annual fee for a Class C (fraternal/sororal) organization license is $400.

Anne Arundel County issues Class C per diem alcoholic beverages licenses that allow the license holder to exercise the privileges of a Class C alcoholic beverage license when holding an entertainment event conducted by a club. The event must be at the place described in the license and cannot exceed seven consecutive days. The fee for a Class C per diem beer and wine license is $25, and the fee for a Class C per diem beer, wine, and liquor license is $50.
