Analysis

Current Law: Crownsville Hospital Center, located in Anne Arundel County, served as a State-run psychiatric hospital from 1911 until it was closed in 2004. The hospital was first established for African American patients and remained racially segregated until 1963. In December 2022, Anne Arundel County acquired the Crownsville Hospital property from the State. Following the acquisition, the county renamed the property the Crownsville Hospital Memorial Park and began a master plan process to envision the future of the site. In September 2023, the Anne Arundel County Executive signed an executive order to create the Crownsville Advisory Committee for the Crownsville Hospital Memorial Park. On February 12, 2025, Anne Arundel County government released the final master plan report for the Crownsville Hospital Memorial Park. Additional information about the Crownsville Hospital Memorial Park is available on the county government's website.
