Senate Bill 603

(Senator Zucker, et al.)

Budget and Taxation

Appropriations

University of Maryland, College Park Campus – TerpsEXCEED Program – Funding

---

This bill authorizes the Governor to include $350,000 in the annual budget bill for the TerpsEXCEED (EXperiencing College through Education and Employment Discovery) Program at the University of Maryland, College Park Campus (UMCP), beginning in fiscal 2027. The funding may serve as a sustainable funding source for the management of the TerpsEXCEED Program. The bill specifies permitted uses for the funding, including advising and counseling, offering courses, and developing internship and job opportunities.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2025.

Analysis

Current Law: The TerpsEXCEED Program is an inclusive post-secondary education program at UMCP that provides Maryland students with intellectual disabilities the opportunity to participate in a college experience for two years, culminating in a certificate.

State Fiscal Effect: Beginning in fiscal 2027, the bill authorizes the Governor to include $350,000 in the annual budget bill for the TerpsEXCEED Program. As under current law, any such funding is discretionary. To the extent funding is provided under the bill, UMCP higher education revenues and expenditures increase correspondingly for the purposes permitted by the bill.
