Analysis

Current Law:

Community Health Workers

“Community health worker” is defined under Title 13, Subtitle 37 of the Health-General Article to mean a frontline public health worker who (1) is a trusted member of, or has an unusually close understanding of, the community served; (2) serves as a liaison, link, or intermediary between health and social services and the community to facilitate access to services and improve the quality and cultural competence of service delivery; and (3) builds individual and community capacity by increasing health knowledge and self-sufficiency through a range of activities, including outreach, community education, the provision of information to support individuals in the community, social support, and advocacy.

Commemorative Days

Twenty official commemorative days, seven months, and one week are recognized in State law, as shown in Exhibit 1. The Governor also must issue a proclamation each year encouraging citizens and other individuals to observe a moment of silence at 3:00 p.m. on Memorial Day to unite in remembrance and commemorate the heroic acts and efforts of Marylanders who have served and died in the U.S. Armed Forces.
