Article - Business Regulation

[Previous][Next]

§16.9–201.

(a) A person located outside the State must have a remote tobacco seller license before the person may sell premium cigars or pipe tobacco to a consumer in the State.

(b) A remote tobacco seller license authorizes the licensee to sell premium cigars and pipe tobacco through a common carrier or private delivery service to a consumer in the State by receiving and filling orders that the consumer transmits by electronic or other means.

[Previous][Next]