16 Section 9–503(a)

17 Annotated Code of Maryland

18 (2025 Replacement Volume)

19 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND,
20 That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

21 Article – Labor and Employment

EXPLANATION: CAPITALS INDICATE MATTER ADDED TO EXISTING LAW.

[Brackets] indicate matter deleted from existing law.

Underlining indicates amendments to bill.

~~Strike out~~ indicates matter stricken from the bill by amendment or deleted from the law by amendment.

1 9-502.

2 (a) In this section, "disablement" means the event of a covered employee becoming 3 partially or totally incapacitated:

4 (1) because of an occupational disease; and

5 (2) from performing the work of the covered employee in the last occupation
6 in which the covered employee was injuriously exposed to the hazards of the occupational
7 disease.

8 (b) Subsection (c) of this section applies only to:

9 (1) the employer in whose employment the covered employee was last 10 injuriously exposed to the hazards of the occupational disease; and

11 (2) the insurer liable for the risk when the covered employee, while 12 employed by the employer, was last injuriously exposed to the hazards of the occupational 13 disease.

14 (c) Subject to subsection (d) of this section and except as otherwise provided, an 15 employer and insurer to whom this subsection applies shall provide compensation in 16 accordance with this title to:

17 (1) a covered employee of the employer for disability of the covered 18 employee resulting from an occupational disease; or

19 (2) the dependents of the covered employee for death of the covered
20 employee resulting from an occupational disease.

21 (d) An employer and insurer are liable to provide compensation under subsection
22 (c) of this section only if:

23 (1) the occupational disease that caused the death or disability:

24 (i) is due to the nature of an employment in which hazards of the 25 occupational disease exist and the covered employee was employed before the date of 26 disablement; or

27 (ii) has manifestations that are consistent with those known to 28 result from exposure to a biological, chemical, or physical agent that is attributable to the 29 type of employment in which the covered employee was employed before the date of 30 disablement; and

31 (2) on the weight of the evidence, it reasonably may be concluded that the 32 occupational disease was incurred as a result of the employment of the covered employee.

1 (e) A covered employee or a dependent of the covered employee is not entitled to
2 compensation for a disability or death that results from an occupational disease if, when
3 the covered employee began employment with the employer, the covered employee falsely
4 represented in writing that the covered employee had not been disabled, laid off, or 5 compensated in damages or otherwise, due to the occupational disease for which the 6 covered employee or dependent is seeking compensation.
