24 Indian and Alaskan Native women and girls experience rates of violence up to 10 times

EXPLANATION: CAPITALS INDICATE MATTER ADDED TO EXISTING LAW.

[Brackets] indicate matter deleted from existing law.

1 greater than the national average, and are less likely, compared to other racial groups, to 2 receive needed services when victims of violence; and

3 WHEREAS, American Indian and Alaskan Native women and girls experience
4 violence perpetrated by, most commonly, non-American Indian and non-Alaskan Native
5 individuals, which contrasts with other groups where the majority of violence is committed 6 against members of the same race; and

7 WHEREAS, There continues to be specific failures in reporting and prosecutions for 8 violence against American Indian and Alaskan Native women and girls at the federal, state, 9 and local level; and

10 WHEREAS, According to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's National Crime
11 Information Center, the number of reported cases of missing American Indian and Alaskan 12 Native women and girls has gradually increased from 5,203 in 2021 to 5,487 in 2024; and

13 WHEREAS, The data available from official resources is widely considered to be 14 undercounted due to known issues with data collection, racial misidentification, and 15 jurisdictional complexities; and

16 WHEREAS, The 2020 Census counts approximately 2% of the population of this 17 State, or over 120,000 individuals, identify as American Indian and Alaskan Native; and

18 WHEREAS, The State must stand in solidarity with the victims and survivors of 19 violence, raise public awareness, and improve reporting mechanisms to address the crisis 20 of violence against American Indian and Alaskan Native women and girls that persists in 21 the State, country, and continent; now, therefore,

22 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND,
23 That Section(s) 7-410 through 7-421 of Article – General Provisions of the Annotated Code
24 of Maryland be renumbered to be Section(s) 7-411 through 7-422, respectively.

25 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Laws of Maryland read 26 as follows:
