11 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND,
12 That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

13 Article – Human Services

14 10–101.

15 (a) In this title the following words have the meanings indicated.

16 (d) “Department” means the Department of Aging.

17 (f) “Secretary” means the Secretary of Aging.

18 10–204.

19 (a) The Secretary shall administer the programs and activities that the federal
20 government delegates to the State under the Older Americans Act of 1965 that are not
21 otherwise committed by law to another unit of State government.

22 (b) The Secretary:

23 (1) is a member of the Governor’s Executive Council; and

24 (2) shall cooperate with and receive the cooperation of State, federal, and 25 local governmental units to carry out the purposes of this title.

26 (c) The Secretary shall:

27 (1) evaluate the service needs of seniors in the State;

28 (2) determine the extent to which existing public and private programs
29 meet the needs of seniors;

30 (3) establish priorities for meeting the needs of seniors;

1           (4)    coordinate, subject to existing law, assess and evaluate, and educate
2 the public and professionals about all State and local programs and services, both public
3 and private, that relate and are important to the well-being of seniors in the State,
4 including programs and services in the areas of:

5                   (i)    income maintenance;

6                   (ii)   public health;

7                   (iii)   mental health;

8                   (iv)   housing and urban development;

9                   (v)    employment;

10                  (vi)   education;

11                  (vii)   recreation; and

12                  (viii)   rehabilitation of seniors with physical or mental disabilities; and

13           (5)    develop a statewide plan incorporating local plans for a comprehensive
14 and coordinated system of health, social, and community services for seniors, including 15 housing and institutional and noninstitutional care.

16           (d)    The Secretary shall:

17                   (1)    represent the interests of seniors by serving as an advocate at all levels
18 of government;

19                   (2)    consult with and advise the secretaries of the principal departments of 20 State government about the programs and services for seniors that are the primary
21 responsibility of those departments;

22                   (3)    consult with the Commission on Aging on all matters pertaining to
23 programs for seniors;

24                   (4)    provide consultation and technical assistance to communities and civic
25 groups developing local services for seniors;

26                   (5)    maintain a clearinghouse of information related to the interests of 27 seniors; and

28                   (6)    review and recommend policies to the Governor on publicly funded
29 plans and programs that affect seniors.

1 (e) The Secretary may adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of law that
2 are within the jurisdiction of the Secretary.
