10. Description and Purpose of Organization (Limit length to visible area)
Greater Mount Holly Community Development Corporation (GMHCDC) is a communitybased nonprofit in West Baltimore dedicated to revitalizing communities through strong support networks and purposeful building. GMHCDC is dedicated to uplifting neighborhoods that are often overlooked and without representation. GMHCDC is committed to helping local communities thrive through various community services, educational initiatives, community development, and cooperative community planning.

11. Description and Purpose of Project (Limit length to visible area)

2005-2007 Denison Street will convert two formerly vacant city lots to a community hub that supports the organization's community Green Infrastructure Master Plan. In connection with Blue Water Baltimore as a partner, the project is designed to address the reduction of stormwater drainage and runoff, produce a bioswale facility, install a raingarden, install permeable pavers, earthen terraced seating, and conservation landscaping. There is space for a community garden as well as community space for events and gatherings.
