Since 1986, Chrysalis House Inc. (CHI) has provided 24/7 residential addiction recovery services for underprivileged women with substance use and mental health disorders. With individualized stays of 412 months, CHI empowers women to build better lives for themselves and their children. As one of the few Maryland programs allowing women to bring up to two children under age ten into treatment, CHI promotes family stability during recovery. In addition to its residential program, CHI operates Chrysalis House Healthy Start in Baltimore City, three supportive houses in Anne Arundel County, and an on-site outpatient program. Serving an exclusively Medicaid-eligible population, CHI delivers holistic, trauma-informed care that includes clinical treatment, motherchild bonding, stable housing, nutritious meals, and life-skills development.
