Resurrection of Life Community Center (DBA Resurrection of Life Center) is a new nonprofit organization in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area that will provide 24-hour faith-based residential care for families affected by addiction. Our goal is to make positive changes by assisting women in restoring their families through activities that address medical, spiritual (optional), mental, and economic needs. Many clients will have court orders to complete a rehabilitation and counseling program. Resurrection of Life Center will provide wrap around services that include substance abuse treatment, mental health therapy, housing, food, parent training, child care and emotional wellness and, if desired, rediscovery of the inner peace that can be found in a relationship with God.
