House Bill 481
Judiciary

---

Family Law - Denial or Interference With Visitation Rights

---

This bill requires the court, on a determination that a party to a custody or visitation order has unjustifiably denied or interfered with visitation, to order additional periods of visitation to be scheduled that are (1) of the same type, including weekend, holiday, or summer visitation time, and of the same duration as the visitation that was denied or interfered with; (2) at a time that the other party chooses; and (3) within two years after the court determination that the visitation had been unjustifiably denied or interfered with. Consistent with requirements under current law, any action by the court under the bill must be in a manner consistent with the best interests of the child.
