

The problem:

-It is a citable offense to drive without a license in possession, regardless of status. Many will not know their license has been flagged.

The solution:

- Until licenses flagged in this way are no longer in existence, a person who has had their flagged license confiscated may not be cited.

Please consider a quick and positive affirmation of this legislation. There are Marylanders with flagged licenses currently with more being added to the list.

Delegate Eric Ebersole