

Members of the Health and Government Operations Committee,

I strongly oppose this bill. I'm disturbed when realizing such a bill is necessary to begin with.

I consider this bill to be crucial in protecting minors' ultimate access to informed consent, and parents' fundamental right to make decisions impacting their children's health and welfare, particularly regarding invasive procedures which confer potentially serious and lasting side effects.

Thank you,

Jill Kapper