THE SENATE OF MARYLAND ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND 21401

Testimony of Senator Jill P. Carter In Favor of SB0593 - Child Interrogation Protection Act Before the Judicial Proceedings Committee on February 19, 2020

Mr. Chairman, Mr. Vice chair, and Members of the Committee:

Senate Bill 593 acknowledges what we already know - children are different. Scared kids will say anything. This bill provides safeguards against false confessions from frightened children. It requires that a child's parent or guardian be given the chance to make in-person contact with their child prior to questioning. It requires that the child consult in private with an attorney prior to questioning. Telling the youth that they have the right to an attorney is not good enough. This bill requires that they actually speak with an attorney prior to interrogation. This provision can only be waived in an emergency.

Senate Bill 593 protects children and it protects the community at large. These simple steps help assure that the police are getting the most accurate information the child can provide. False confessions send innocent people to prison. They also send investigators down blind alleys and let the real bad guy go free.

Here are just two situations where scared children told the police what they thought they wanted to hear:

In Michigan, 14 year old Devontae Sanford admitted to a quadruple homicide that he did not commit after being arrested in his pajamas and interrogated for over 24 hours without either a parent or attorney present. He confessed because the police told him if he did, he could go home.

In Wisconsin, 16 year old Brendan Dassey, confessed to a murder his uncle actually committed because the investigators, in his words, "got into my head. They got me to say whatever they wanted".

There are ample studies detailing how suggestible children are especially when being interrogated by police. I will leave a full review of the academic literature to other witnesses on the panel.

This bill gives the parent, the child, and the investigators clear directions to ensure the well-being of the child and the integrity of the investigation.

For these reasons, I urge a favorable report on Senate Bill 593 from this committee.

Very Truly Yours,

gill P. Carton
