Senate Bill 907 Public Safety - Crime Plan and Law Enforcement Councils (Maryland State Crime Plan)

Position: Informational

Dear Chair Smith, Vice-Chair Waldstreicher, and Members of the Committee:

Senate Bill 907 - Public Safety - Crime Plan and Law Enforcement Councils (Maryland State Crime Plan) would create a law enforcement coordinating council within the State Police, require a state crime plan that calls for the establishment of regional councils for the purpose of regional cooperation, and require monthly reporting on how state resources are used to prevent crime.

The Administration believes strongly that information sharing across jurisdictional lines is a critical aspect of reducing violent crime. In fact, this principle is the main theory behind the Administration's Maryland Criminal Intelligence Network (MCIN) initiative. Launched in December 2017, the MCIN is a criminal justice strategy, coordinated at the local, state, and federal level, targeting violent criminal networks as well as drug, firearms, and human trafficking. MCIN is particularly focused on those criminal networks that are impacting multiple jurisdictions, and accomplishes this by sharing information across jurisdictional lines.

MCIN's goals are focused on identifying, disrupting, and dismantling criminal networks through collaboration and comprehensive data sharing. MCIN aligns state resources to provide for a streamlined and coordinated operational plan which currently includes the following 13 coalitions: Annapolis, Anne Arundel County, Baltimore City, Carroll County, Cecil County, Cumberland, Dorchester County, Frederick, Hagerstown, Hyattsville, Montgomery County, Prince George's County, and Salisbury.

To date, the MCIN coalition site in Baltimore has resulted in the dismantlement or disruption of 28 criminal organizations, 10 drug trafficking organizations, and 2 gangs as well as the seizure of 54 firearms and more than $500,000.

Additionally, we wanted to bring to the attention of the Committee two existing bodies -- the Governor's Council on Gangs and Violent Criminal Networks, established by executive order in 2017, as well as the State Law Enforcement Coordinating Council within the Maryland State Police.

While the Administration certainly appreciates the acknowledgment that the crime levels in our State's largest city are unacceptable, none of these efforts will be successful if we can't keep violent offenders off the streets and illegal guns out of our communities. We urge you to pass the Administration's legislation to increase accountability for violent offenders, Senate Bill 273 Crimes - Firearms - Penalties and Procedures (Violent Firearms Offender Act of 2020); SB 271 Crimes - Victim and Witness Intimidation - Penalties and Procedures; and Senate Bill 272 State Commission on Criminal Sentencing Policy - Annual Report - Crimes of Violence (The Judicial Transparency Act of 2020).

Sincerely,
