I believe that everybody that gets into a accident should be immediately have to take a breathalyzer. My bestfriend got killed by a man and what did he get a 500 dollar fine?? The system should be ashamed of it's self seriously. A innocent 14 year old boy lost his life and you make a man pay 500$ is that really what you all think my bestfriend/ brother's life is worth!? Imagine if you were in this situation if this were your son/nephew/brother/bestfriend how would you feel and what would you do to make sure something like this never happens again. Danny was a good soul one of the most intelligent, loyal and trustworthy people i ever knew he was like a old soul. He knew so much at his age and what was going on with this world its crazy. And now to say my brother is gone is crazy and to think the guy that killed my lil brother only had got a 500 dollar fine and didnt get breathalyzer on the scene is ridiculous. I stand for DanShaun and everything he beleved in and i stand for DanShaun's law period.
