

Self-Directed Services provide the best of both worlds- flexibility for the participant to live their best life, and cost savings for the State of Maryland! On average, Self-directed budgets are 27% lower than traditional provider-managed budgets.

Data provided by DDA from PCIS2 database on 12/8/2020. This data represents 1,162 Self-directed participants and 14,872 participants receiving traditional provider-managed services.