2021 Session POSITION PAPER

BILL NO: SB 466
COMMITTEE: Finance
POSITION: Support

TITLE: Certificates for Involuntary Admission – Licensed Certified Social Worker – Clinical

BILL ANALYSIS: This bill alters a requirement that a certain certificate accompany an application for involuntary admission to certain facilities by providing that the certificate may be of a physician and a license certified social worker – clinical.

POSITION AND RATIONALE: The Maryland Board of Social Work Examiners (the “Board”) supports SB 466.

The Board recognizes the importance of having two qualified health care practitioners sign a certificate for involuntary admission to certain facilities. This bill will enable licensed certified social workers-clinical to join psychologist and psychiatric nurse practitioner as health care practitioners able to sign such involuntary admission certificates, along with a physician.

For this reason, the Maryland Board of Social Work Examiners requests a favorable report on SB 466.

For more information, please contact the Board’s Executive Director, Dr. Stanley E. Weinstein at 410-764-4722 or Stanley.Weinstein@maryland.gov.
