

I am in favor of the Congressional district map championed by our governor and designed fairly by our citizens. Marylanders deserve to have a fair district map that allows us to ask have an equal say in who we elect not just the highly populated areas. We are the most gerrymandered state and we deserve better. We all deserve to have our voices heard and this will help.