

MARYLAND COALITION FOR JUSTICE & POLICE ACCOUNTABILITY

Testimony in SUPPORT of SB627

Law Enforcement Officers' Bill of Rights - Repeal and Procedures for Discipline

Maryland Coalition for Justice and Police Accountability

February 3, 2021

Dear Honorable Chairman Smith and Members of the Judicial Proceedings Committee:

The Maryland Coalition for Justice and Police Accountability (MCJPA) is pleased to provide favorable testimony in support of SB 627, Law Enforcement Officers' Bill of Rights - Repeal and Procedures for Discipline. MCJPA is a statewide coalition of over 90 organizations united to achieve meaningful police reform in Maryland - and includes individuals and family members who have been impacted by police violence, civil rights activists, religious leaders, legal experts, advocacy groups, and more.

Since the Law Enforcement Officers' Bill of Rights (LEOBR) was enacted in 1974, it has allowed police abuse to go unpunished with a majority of officers with complaints going without any discipline at all. LEOBR protects officers from accountability by giving them special due process rights that go beyond what is required under the Constitution. LEOBR also allows police chiefs to escape accountability because they can deflect to the hearing board that made the decision.

For instance, LEOBR shields officers from discipline by saying that, unless they are convicted of a felony, they can only be disciplined after a mini-trial is conducted, with fellow officers as the judges no matter how egregious the conduct or how clear the evidence. This is why it is so important to have a transparent and streamlined discipline process that allows for us to hold bad officers accountable.

Countless Marylanders and their families have suffered from police wrongdoing without any form of justice. Maryland is in the minority of states that give these special rights to law enforcement that no other public employee in the state of Maryland has, thus, protecting officers from accountability. Only 16 other states have a LEOBR. SB627 is a tremendous step forward in achieving justice by striking the entire LEOBR (Pub. Safety §3-101 – §3-113) from state law and replacing it with the due process rights and procedures laid out in the bill.

Our coalition strongly believes that it is precisely because law enforcement officers have so much power over people they serve (to legally kill and deprive people of their liberty) that we cannot shield them from discipline. Police officers should be treated no differently than any other state or local employee and should have the same rights in the workplace that other employees do.

The Maryland Coalition for Justice and Police Accountability strongly urges a favorable report on SB 627.

Respectfully,

Maryland Coalition for Justice and Police Accountability
