Dear Maryland Delegates and Senators,

I am a Baltimore resident writing in support of the repeal of the Law Enforcement Officers' Bill of Rights. It is a deeply unfair system that allows police misconduct to be hidden, delayed and denied. Maryland needs a system that allows for law enforcement officers' actions to be held up to the light and justice to be served. The special protections that police have held is allowing unlawful actions to be ignored. Repealing LEOBR is an essential step in increasing police accountability, advancing police reform and towards racial justice.

Sincerely,

Lydia Obeng
