

HB0455

OPPOSE

You can try and hide it with the word games, but this bill is about Critical Race Theory. There are any number of euphemisms used for it to try and hide its intent, but it is completely racist! Someone asked me to read "White Fragility," a CRT book, but the premise of this book is about separating people into categories based on their SKIN COLOR! We are better than this. Didn't the Reverend Martin Luther King preach against this – a person's character is what really counts. Why are we opening old wounds and trying to sow division when we have come so far? Please oppose HB0455! Thank you.
