

I am in favor of eliminating any fees associated with online filing for business who submit their annual report electronically.