The National Institute for Labor Relations Research is an organization whose primary function is to act as a research facility for the general public, scholars and students. It provides the supplementary analysis and research necessary to expose the inequities of compulsory unionism. The Institute is classified by the Internal Revenue Service as a Section 501(c)(3) educational and research organization. Contributions and grants are tax deductible under Section 170 of the Code and are welcome from individuals, foundations, and corporations.

The Institute will, upon request, provide documentation to substantiate tax-deductibility of a contribution or grant. Nothing here is to be construed as an attempt to aid or hinder the passage of any bill before Congress or a state legislature.
