Senate Bill 220 – Calvert County – Sunday Hunting

Dear Chairman Pinsky and Members of the Committee,

I am writing to introduce Senate Bill 220 – Calvert County – Sunday Hunting. This bill would add Calvert County to the list of counties where hunting would be permitted on each Sunday of the game bird and game mammal seasons. In 2019, I sponsored legislation that extended Sunday hunting in St. Mary's County in this manner. Following passage of that bill, I began to hear from constituents in Calvert County about extending these same privileges to Calvert County landowners as this bill only applies to hunting on private property.

I believe very strongly that all Marylanders should be able to hunt on Sundays. Hunting is significantly regulated by the State. There is a requirement that hunters must attend a Hunter Safety Education class, pass a written test, demonstrate firearm safety, and purchase a hunting license. Before hunting on private property, the hunter is required by law to get written permission of the landowner. The landowner can determine when, for what species, what methods, and how hunting is allowed on their own property.

It is particularly important for younger hunters, who often have school sporting events on weekdays and Saturdays, to permit Sunday hunting so that the next generation of hunters can have an opportunity to participate in this great tradition. Sunday has become a very popular day for hunting in our State. Despite the current restrictions, according to the Department of Natural Resources, hunters harvested over 7,200 deer on Sundays in 2020, representing 10% of the total harvest.

Maryland's restrictions on Sunday hunting are a relic of an era that has long since passed. It is legal to target shoot on Sundays and to trap and kill groundhogs, coyotes, fisher, gray and red fox, nutria, opossum, raccoon and skunks on Sunday. It is also legal to shoot on a regulated shooting area or with a crop damage permit on Sunday. The current Sunday hunting laws are a significant restriction on the rights of private property owners to hunt or permit hunting on their own property.

It is important to note that this bill only pertains to Sunday hunting on private property in Calvert County and does not alter any provisions of law regarding public lands. Senate Bill 220 has the support of the Calvert County Senators, the Calvert County Delegation, and the Board of County Commissioners of Calvert County.

I respectfully request a favorable report on Senate Bill 220. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
