

3/29/22

This bill would enable child rapists to conceal their crimes by allowing them to terminate the pregnancies of their victims without parental consent. The impact of this cannot be exaggerated; there is already a human trafficking problem in most Western countries, and this bill would undoubtedly result in further proliferation of child abuse. I do not support this bill, and it should not appear on any ballot in a general election.

Helen Geiger