

This bill is an attack on basic human dignity. It has no regard to age and mental development. It is a danger to young people and allows for criminal activity as if to make it legal. It is an endangerment to our society.