

Parents and other Adults need to fight for children because we have lost our way. Everyone that will be making the decision to pass such a Bill at one time were children or have children. Our society cannot continue with the loss of morals and dwindling of our country's strength and pride. It all came tumbling down when we no longer knew what Truth was.