

Democrats insisted that all forms of voter ID were racist. They called voter verification "Jim Crow of the 21st century" and "Jim Crow 2.0." What are Democrats saying about Covid Passports? Isn't this another example of government overreach?

Covid Passports are an infringement on citizens rights and should be voted down.

With two years of data collection, we are learning from Johns Hopkins University that lock-downs didn't work:

"After three levels of screening, 34 studies ultimately qualified. Of those 34 eligible studies, 24 qualified for inclusion in the meta-analysis. They were separated into three groups: lock-down stringency index studies, shelter-in-place-order (SIPO) studies, and specific NPI studies. An analysis of each of these three groups support the conclusion that lock-downs have had little to no effect on COVID-19 mortality."

And, earlier studies warn of the deoxygenation of N95 masks for long periods of usage:
