

Maryland General Assembly,

What you are proposing is the most cruel and twisted actions against everything I have ever believed that was good for human beings. Where do you people get the authority to try to do this evil against your children? I find this sickening to contemplate, and will stand again your State by every means available to me.

Thomas Szuba

