

HB1171 Unfavorable

This bill is NOT favorable for adults, let alone for children. Government officials are put into office to reinforce bills and protect the constitution, NOT to promote pedophilia, prostitution, abortion, and capitalize on the innocence of children. To use all your guile to subvert parental authority is not your authority or your business. You have no right to expose young children who lack worldly experience and discernment of right judgement to this type of perversion.