

This bill places no age restrictions on "reproductive liberty," which means it includes minors. It would remove age of consent and statutory rape laws because children would be given full reproductive autonomy over their bodies. It violates parental rights. It would be supported by Maryland tax dollars regardless of citizens' objections. It would be open to citizens of other states. It is devoid of all morality.