

This bill should NOT pass. It violates basic principles of protection for children of all ages and thus should be struck down.