

Regarding HB1171: Legislators, under no circumstance should this atrocious, morally bankrupt legislation be passed. It offers no regard for the sanctity of all human life, it endangers children of all ages, offering no legal protection for minors from sexual predators. It has no merit in any part. If it is passed, Maryland will become a haven for pedophiles, and you would have made that haven possible.