

I believe that women should be given every right to not have a child they don't want. But, after they get pregnant then they have no right to kill the child they're now carrying. All abortion minded women believe that no one should tell them what to do with their bodies that it's their right. What about the rights of the female child you could be carrying. WHERE ARE HER RIGHTS!!