

Children are the future of our country.this bill will end the lives of many of them. We cannot go down this road. Vote against this bill. I can't believe that we have gotten this far that it has slipped past the senate. Examine your conscience.