

This bill endorses and highlights the most base carnal animal instincts of a human being. The efforts need to be in personal responsibility of conduct prior to pregnancies occurring. I don't see efforts and no one does in this area which is vital. I discontinue needs to protect the most vulnerable fragile of its population being children. The lack of regard for the preciousness of life is going to unleash complete anarchy in this country if allowed to continue.